Don Bosco Mission
Office in Canada
Reaching out to Salesian Missionaries Worldwide.

Who we are

The Salesian Missionaries of Don Bosco help to educate and evangelize the young especially the poorest of the poor. Inspired by our founder Saint John Bosco, the religious order of the Salesians of Don Bosco dedicate their lives to bringing aid to disadvantaged youth. Don Bosco believed that "Education is a matter of the heart." He nurtured a deep understanding and love for young people and guided them with reason, religion and kindness. He acknowledged that young people are vital to our society.

What we do

The Don Bosco Missions Office is a Canadian registered charity BN 83428 7468 RR 0001. We exist to support our Salesian Missionaries who are perpetually professed Priests, Brothers and Sisters who care for the disadvantaged youth in developing countries. We receive donations from loyal benefactors across Canada. We issue official Canadian income tax receipts. Your generosity provides nourishment, shelter, education, recreational activities, pastoral care, humanitarian and disaster relief, religious formation and much more.

Where we work

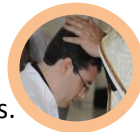

Don Bosco dreamed of the growth of the Salesian works that reaches across the world from South America to China. Today we are located in over 130 countries working with youth, their families and their communities.

How to help

You can help the Salesians of Don Bosco with:

- Generous donations.
- Gifts of bequests.
- Volunteer for missionary trips.
- Host fundraisers for our missions.
- Sponsor seminarians, orphans, etc.
- Donations in lieu of party favours or gifts.
- Offer Masses in memory or as a gift.
- Offer an Everlasting gift album.
- Spread the news about our good works.

Who we help

South America: support seminarians.

India: help street children.

Madagascar: provide education

Victims of devastations: epidemics, earthquakes, floods, drought, famine, poverty, war, etc.

Gift of Masses

Our Salesian Missionary Priests celebrate Gregorian Masses.

Gifts of Masses provide education, shelter and food for the poor children in our care. Have Masses celebrated and be part of our great mission.

Suggested offering:

- $250 for a set of 30 Gregorian Masses celebrated consecutively.
- $10 for an individual Mass.

Acknowledgement cards available upon request.
